All are welcome to attend the 42th Annual Concerned Citizens of Montauk (CCOM) "Meet the Candidates Forum" to be held at 1pm on Sunday, October 28, at the Montauk Firehouse, 12 Flamingo Avenue in Montauk, New York.

Confirmed attendees include US Senate Candidate Wendy Long, US Congressman Tim Bishop and his challenger Mr. Randy Altschuler, and NYS Senator Kenneth P. LaValle and his challenger Southampton Town Councilwoman Bridget Fleming.

This televised forum will cover Federal and State elections. All candidates present will have an opportunity to introduce themselves, state their positions and ask a question of their opponent. The public will also have the opportunity to ask questions of the candidates.

CCOM's Meet the Candidates forum is an established avenue for voters on the east end of Long Island to hear directly from candidates up for election in November and make informed choices about how they will cast their ballots.

Historically, it has been a standing-room-only event.

This event is free and open to the public.
