

For Immediate Release:

January 30, 2018

CCOM and Montauk School Announce Science Fair Winners

Montauk, New York – On Friday, January 26th Montauk School and Concerned Citizens of Montauk partnered to present the 2018 Montauk School Science Fair.

Over 100 student projects were evaluated and scored by a panel of 18 judges representing regional science and environmental organizations such as the Peconic Estuary Program, The Nature Conservancy, Cornell Cooperative Extension of Suffolk County, South Fork Natural History Museum, and the Peconic Bay Keeper.

The winners, who will be honored later in February at a ceremony are as follows:

8th Grade

1st Noelle Hear
2nd Grayson Forsberg
3rd Julianne Lester

7th Grade

1st Jessica Prince
2nd Emily Ryan
3rd Colin Tyrell

6th Grade

1st Gianna D'Agostino, Katie Bruno
2nd Sara Stuckart
3rd Nina King

5th Grade

1st Paige Herlihy
2nd Richie Rade, Hudson Beckman
3rd Isabella Espinosa

4th Grade

1st Zebidiah Ryan
2nd Seamus O'Reilly, Evan Koutsogiannis
3rd Hailey Welsch, Carly Fromm

3rd Grade

1st Lily Rasi
2nd Johanna Powers
3rd Fisher Forsberg